PERFECT CURES.—TESTIMONIALS. 4 Maloo, 25th April, 1878. DEAR SIR,-A deep sense of gratitute will ever pervade my bosoms. All the year I was sorely troubled with a shrowish wife, which was followed by pains in the head, loss of the hair, &c. Having heard of your Comiccomia I took a box and I and my household are now in excel-

Mrs. Victoria Guelph, Sole Proprietress. On! Sir. The debt I owe you can never be repaid. I feel it a duty to let my fellow creatures know how speedily they can be relieved from their sufferings. My children (four boys and six girls, all under 12) have been home for the holidays, and their shrieking, yelling, and shouting for your Comicconia was unbearable. In desporation I tried it for them all, and peace and content now bless my dwelling. Wishing you all the success you are sure to receive, and

PATRIOTIC SONG.

The following patriotic song has been composed b Madamo Carlotta Tasca, act to music by Mr. Plump ton, and sung in Bombay i-To arms! to arms! the ery goes forth, The rumour fills the air Again in mortal combat meet The Lion and the Bear; From countless squadrons of the for Resounds the battle-ory, While from a thousand cannon mouths Old England makes roply,-Chorus-One soldiers, sailors, voluntoers,

To fight for England's henours And conquer if they out. With British valoue, British plack, And British arms and men, Wa've wen great victories before, And so we will again ... Horoce at Balaclava And Inkermann who fell! Your doeds of daring and of worth Still make the heart to swall. Each Englishman your story knows, And emulates your fame, like you he'd most his country's foes, And win a deathless name.

Chorns Our soldiers, sailors, volunteers, Are ready, to a man, To fight for England's honour, And conquer if they can, With British valour, British pluck; And British arms and men. We've thrashed the Russians once before. And so we will again! CABLOTTAPIASCA.
